His subject was "John Barry, father of the American navy," and the speaker handled his theme with signal ability. Miss N. Dietrich and Mrs. Charles Dunn, of Washington, rendered vocal solos and Miss Salis Patterson, of this city, a piano solo. The instrumental music, furnished by Messrs. Carl Padgett, Chas. Fleet and Miss Mamie Devitt, was exceptionally fine.

Michael Scherl arrived in Alexandria yesterday from Philadelphia. He had a knapsack upon his back, was rolling a wheelbarrow and followed by a fox terrier he called "Jack." Scherl left the city of brotherly love last Monday for the purpose of tramp around the world. At night he spoke to a small assembly at King and Royal streets. He stated that his objective point after leaving this city will be Richmond, thence to Florida, western Mexico, San Francisco, Hawaii, Samoa, Fiji Islands, Australia, Java, Sumatra, Borneo, Philippine Islands, Japan, China, Tibet, India, Belochistan, Persia, Arabia, Palestine, Africa, Morocco, Gibraltar, Greece, Turkey, Crimea, Continental Europe, Finland, Scandinavia, Iceland, Scotland and Liverpool, England. From the latter place Scherl will sail to Rio Janeiro, thence to the western coast of South America, visiting Central America and re-entering Mexico and California. He will leave that State on his return to Philadelphia. Scherl says he can finish his tramp in five years.

STONEWALL JACKSON AND CHANCELLORSVILLE.

Rev. James Power Smith, D. D., of Richmond, captain and aide-de-camp, staff of General Jackson, and the only man now living who was with Jackson when he was wounded and when he died, will tell the story of Stonewall Jackson and Chancellorsville, on Friday, January 10, at the Young People's Building. Of this battle Gen. Jackson on May 3, 1863, said: "Our movement yesterday was a great success—I think the most successful military movement of my life. But I expect to receive far more credit for it than I deserve. Most men will think that I had planned it all from the first, but it was not so. I simply took advantage of circumstances as they were presented to me in the providence of God. I feel that His hand led me. Let us give Him all the glory."

DEATH OF MR. BRENDEL.

Mr. Henry Brendel, one of the oldest and most generally known citizens of Alexandria, died at the Alexandria Hospital early this afternoon. The deceased, although an octogenarian, had enjoyed good health up to a short time ago, and had continued in active business. Mr. Brendel, who died in 1873, came to this city from Maryland in the forties. The latter opened a bakery and confectionery, and the subject of this notice conducted a wheelwright shop on Queen street. Later he became identified with his brother in the bakery business and continued in the same for over fifty years. At one time he conducted a public place known as the "Nebraska House" in the building now occupied by Mr. M. Rosenfeld, on the south side of King street, between Pitt and St. Asaph. "Brendel's pies, ice cream and taffy" were regarded as standard articles with all classes of the community for many years. Of late years Mr. Brendel had conducted business at different places in this city. The deceased was a popular citizen with all who knew him. He had been married twice. Mr. Brendel was a member of Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons.

POLICE COURT.

There was no session of the Police Court this morning. There was one case on the docket—that of two white men who came here from the county—who were charged with destroying the property of Ray Moore, on north Lee street. The men went to the house yesterday afternoon and terrified the inmates, causing them to lock themselves in their rooms. They subsequently amused themselves by breaking furniture in the house. Officer Garvey took the men in charge, and upon reaching the station house they each left $10 for their appearance this morning. They failed to show themselves, however, and forfeited their collaterals.

PREVALENCE OF GRIP.

According to the report of Health Officer Woodward, of Washington, thirty-six deaths from the grip occurred during the week ended last Saturday. During that time 193 deaths occurred, and of that number 67 were due to diseases of the lungs. Of all the deaths, grip claimed the greatest number. Deaths from that disease in the preceding week numbered thirteen, and for the week before seven. There are many cases of grip in Alexandria.

AN OLD SAYING.

Showing How Cause and Effect Are Never Far Removed.

It is an old saying, "Where there's honey there's bees"—not less true is one which science has coined more recently, "Where there's Dandruff, there's germs"—and to push the inference still further we may truly say "Where there's Dandruff cured Newbro's Herpicide has been at work."

The reason of Herpicide's isolation as a genuine cure for Dandruff lies in the fact that it attacks and destroys the root of the whole trouble—a parasitic germ which feeds upon the material which nourishes the hair follicle. Other so-called remedies are not directed at this true cause of the disease.

Accept no substitute, there is none.

Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Bros., agents. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Kenney's Laxative Cough Syrup acts upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiates—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Alexandria Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians, will meet tonight, when the newly-elected officers will be installed.

In the Corporation Court today Mr. T. Calvert Perry qualified as administrator of the estate of his father, the late Thomas Perry.

The Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation has gotten out a handsome calendar and map of Virginia which it is distributing among its patrons.

In the account published yesterday of an indoor carnival to be given by the Alexandria Elks' next month, the committee named should have read "executive committee."

Alexandria Council of the Order of Jewish Women will give a progressive euchre party to-night in the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum. The proceeds are to be devoted to the charity fund.

Fire Warden Price yesterday visited Bristow where he procured a black horse from Mr. J. E. Carr. The animal is to be used with the Reliance steam fire engine, and will be given a ten days' trial.

The moving pictures exhibited last night by the Belle Haven Amusement Company were pronounced by the audience the best they had ever seen. "Osceola's Revenge" was thrilling, and "Mr. and Mrs. Gay" a laughable pantomime. The latter will be repeated tonight.

Representative Carlin says that at the meeting of the House committee on coinage, weights and measures yesterday the matter of restoring the motto, "In God We Trust," to gold coins was taken up and assigned to a subcommittee. Mr. Carlin said that he intends to make a fight for a favorable report on a bill to restore the motto.
